FRIENDS HOLD QUARTERLY MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of Friends of the Deep River district was held at the Friends' church Saturday. This district, one of the strongest in southern Quakerdom, embraces the con-Hill, Springfield, Archdale and High gregations of the Deep River, Oak Point churches. Notable among the prominent speakers of the denomination who were present to deliver an address and lead in the discussions was Dr. Levi Pennington, director of the Friends forward movement and president of Pacific college, Oregon, but with headquarters at present at Richmond, Ind. The meeting was one of the most interesting of its kind held, Friends asserting that an exceptionally worth while and inspiring program had been arranged.

ANOTHER GREER IN TROUBLE.

Charged with having made improper proposals to Mrs. Cletus Cook, U. S. Greer, white groceryman, was arraigned in municipal court before Judge O. Arthur Kirkman Friday and following the finding of probable cause was held for trial before a superior court jury under bond of $750. The alleged improper proposal, constituting an attempt at criminal assault, is said to have been made when Greer called at the home of Mrs. Cook a few days ago to deliver some groceries and to collect a part of the bill owed him by Cook. The defendant in this suit is a brother of J. Kent Greer and Robert Greer, the two young-men implicated in the highway robbery and white slavery cases recently heard in their preliminary stages at Rockingham.

BIG LEAGUERS COMING NEXT MONTH.

The Toronto club of the International league, managed by the famous ex-big league star player and manager, Hugh Duffy, will visit High Point and play Dickie Miller's Furniture Makers of the Piedmont league on the afternoon of April 14. Fans throughout the section will be interested in the announcement of this game since "Fish" Haddock, the conscientious hard working catcher of the Greensboro Patriots a few seasons ago is the first string back stopper with the Toronto lads. Haddock, it will be remembered, was imported by William Laval the first half-season he had charge of the Patriots and "Fish" was a very popular pastime with the Greensboro bugs. He and John Harper, who also played in the international last year with his former Patriot partner, formed the crack Patriot battery of that season.

SHEMWELL FAILS TO SHOW UP.

The February term of Davidson county superior court was convened Saturday afternoon for the purpose of organizing for the trial of criminal cases this week. Consequently the mill began grinding Monday with the result that a number of important cases have been disposed of, among which are charges of gambling, fornication and adultery, manufacturing liquor, store-breaking, and so on. Baxter Shemwell was called to answer two charges of assault with intent to kill and another for carrying concealed weapons, but he failed to appear. His counsel stated that the defendant was sick in an infirmary in Birmingham, Ala. The court issued a capias instant for him and a nisi for his bondsmen. Sheriff Tussey, therefore, sent a telegram to the authorities in Birmingham and in return received this message: "Baxter Shemwell South Highlands hospital—Nervous breakdown—Treatment—Dr. Joseph Leland. (Signed) T. J. Shirley." Judge McElroy referring to the case Tuesday, gave bondsmen until next court to bring the defendant to trial. The bonds amount to $6,500.

W. G. Bailey, of Statesville, was a business visitor here Friday.

NEW GARAGE FOR CITY.

Plans have been accepted and the contract has been let for the rebuilding of the garage of the High Point Motor company, corner East Commerce and South Hamilton streets says E. Guy Wells, president and manager of the concern. Work will start April 1 and the cost will total about $49,000.

The present garage building is to be razed and a new structure of brick and concrete will take its place. Instead of the present one story building, the new one will be two stories with ample foundation and wall strength to permit the addition of a third and fourth story later, if there be need for the room.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

At 7 o'clock Friday night the fire department was called out to answer a false alarm sent in from box 47 on Green street.

While turning the corner of Main and Washington streets the fire truck from Northside station, driven by Arthur Hayworth, barely missed colliding with an automobile which was on the wrong side of the street. It was only the presence of mind displayed by Mr. Hayworth, who swerved the truck to the extreme right that an accident was avoided.

There is an ordinance requiring automobilists and pedestrians to give fire trucks the right of way when an alarm is sounded and violations of that ordinance should be followed up by vigorous prosecutions.

The false alarm is said to have been turned in by several men who escaped in an automobile when the firemen arrived on the scene. No arrests have been made.

FUNERAL HELD FROM HOME.

The funeral of M. A. Haynaday, who died suddenly Saturday morning at the plant of the Giant Furniture company, where he was employed, was held from the home, 322 Hobson street, at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. M. Hilliard. Interment followed in Oakwood cemetery.

Airy, and one adopted son, Clifford Stout, of West Point, and six daughters, Mrs. Vannie Maynard, of Thomasville; Mrs. Emma Craven and Mrs. Ruby Brown, of Coleridge, N. CHURCHES PLAN BUSY PROGRAM

Interchurch World Movement Outlines Activities In South For Months Ahead

Beginning with a campaign of education of the church member to his financial obligation to the church, a comprehensive and continuous program of activities from the present time through the month of June has been decided upon by the Interchurch World Movement in the South. This campaign of education in the duty of giving to the support of religious activities is commonly known in the movement as the Stewardship campaign. It will culminate on Washington's Birthday in the observance of National Stewardship Enrollment Day in all churches participating in the movement, February 22 this year changing to fall on Sunday.

The Stewardship enrollment observance will be followed by the observance of Sunday, February 29th, as Life Enlistment Day of Prayer for Students. February this year, for the first time in forty years, will have five Sundays. This fifth Sunday observance is to be made a day of significance throughout the Interchurch World Movement's organization.

The month of March is to be given over to the promotion of the campaign for life-work and evangelism, culminating in the observance of Acknowledgment Day on Palm Sunday, which this year falls on March 28th. Every church taking part in the movement is expected to hold special evangelistic services during the month. During March also there are to be held a series of state pastors' conferences in the principal cities of the South to bring the pastors more closely in touch with the purposes and scope of the Interchurch World Movement in its relation to the individual church, community and denomination.

Join the Church Day and Commitment Day, when thousands of new members are expected to be received into the churches in the South, will be observed on Easter Sunday, April 4th. This day will be marked by a great ingathering of Christians in the churches inspired with the thought and determination of doing a greater service for Christianity.

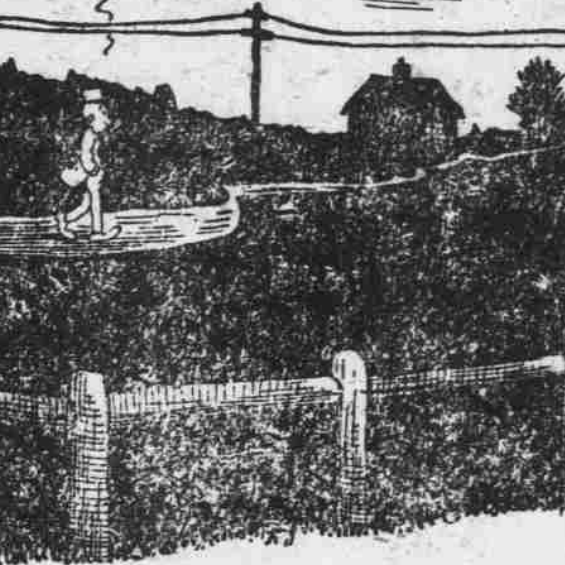

The next fortnight in April will be spent in active preparation for the great financial campaign to be conducted April 21st to May 2d, inclusive. Local teams and committees will be organized and thoroughly drilled in the duties to be expected of them in the making of this canvass for funds to carry out the constructive program of the churches.

Throughout May and the early part of June the Movement will be directed toward the organization and perfection of conservation and extension plans. Later in June summer conferences of missionary education will be held.

Mrs. Hattie C. Sheetz left High Point the latter part of this week for New York, where she goes to attend the convention of modistes and the importers' exhibitions of European styles.

HIGH POINT ROUTE 4 NEWS.

(By Mary A. Clodfelter.)

The flu epidemic is slowly passing and we should feel very grateful that it was no worse. There are of course several empty chairs around the fire-side in the community. We wonder if the flu was not sent as a plague upon the people to warn them of their wickedness. We seem to have strayed away from the old time religion and forgotten our God in a large measure. God tells us that for our sins we shall be beaten with many stripes. We have been beaten but like a child we have continued to disobey God.

The writer and Janie Clodfelter last Thursday visited at the home of Mrs. Martine Clinard. We were made to feel at home. Mrs. Clinard has only recently lost her husband, J. W. Clinard of High Point took dinner with us that day and made the occasion more pleasant.

Rev. and Mrs. John McCuiston called at R. M. Clodfelters Tuesday evening which was very much enjoyed.

The writer is under the impression that the churches should not have closed during the flu epidemic. We don't have enough religion these days anyway and are drifting away from God.

The writer was pained to learn of the death of Mrs. David A. Welborn last week. A good woman gone to her savior.

Mrs. C. C. Smith doesn't seem to improve much, to the regret of her friends.
